AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 300 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.1in. x 0.8in. Pathfinder A Road Map to Teen Empowerment, is a self-help book for teens and their mentors. It navigates the readers through critical life skills including tapping into the subconscious mind, goals, decision-making, perception management, knowledge management, time management, plan development and more. It is a unique book for teens and their mentors that initiates a path to self-discovery and promotes stimulating thoughts and conversation to trigger a futuristic vision for goal accomplishments. Pathfinder A Road Map to Teen Empowerment helps teens use a variety of techniques that will stimulate a sense of healthy competitiveness. The book follows a holistic approach in that it ties everything together from strategy to task implementation. Pathfinder A Road Map to Teen Empowerment is a self-help book for teens and their mentors unlike any other on the market today. It helps teens prepare for the transition period as they go from kidhood to young adulthood. It helps them develop a personal drive that will propel them forward in a deliberate fashion. This book is very unique. To begin with it is a positive book that does not point out the faults of teens, but rather addresses the strengths that if uncovered will lead to their ultimate success. It provides them with examples and encourages them to look inside themselves for answers. It is not an in your face book like some publications that exist in the market today. This book will make teens think about where they are, where they are going, and the decisions they must consider and personal planning they must do as they go forward in life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
