Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Sermon for the Presbyteries of San Francisco and San Jose, on Ministerial Deposition and Ecclesiastical Non-Intercourse [The first portion of this discourse refers to the case of the man who received; his sight at the hands of the Saviour, and who, for persisting in saying that Christ opened his eyes on the Sabbath day, was cast out of the Synagogue by the Pharisees. - John ix, 35-38.] It may seem needless to preach on the subject of excommunicating men from the church; but the ecclesiastical power of the church over men s convenience, over their comfort, over their profit, over their good name, and over their influence in society, although it is very much abated, is still not insignificant; and now and then there are paroxysms of this ecclesiastical spirit breaking out, even in our day, and manifesting itself in such a manner as to make it worth our while to look a little at the grounds of and reasons for these things. One minister is unfellowshipped because he insists upon his right to commune at the Lords table with other acknowledged Christians, though they have not been baptized by immersion. He has violated no canon of morality. He has not fallen from faith in any important or fundamental doctrine.
