Excerpt: . . . taken away the independence and self-government of the local churches of the western lands, she instituted the system of papal despotism, concentrating in the hands of the Pope unlimited authority. Besides this she accepted many new dogmas, such as the procession and from the Son of the Holy Spirit, sprinkling in baptism, the depriving of the laity of the holy wine in the Eucharist, the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mother, and the infallibility of the Pope. And in many other things the Western Church made innovations, such as in the compulsory celibacy of the clergy of all the grades, as also in the imposition in worship of the dead Latin language upon all peoples. Little by little the high-handedness of the Pope reached such a point that he wished to enslave even the emperors and kings of the West; and through the celebrated...
