Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Inter-Collegiate Debate 1913-1914 of Baker University: The Question, Resolved: That Through Appropriate Legislation, a Minimum Wage Scale Ought to Be Put Into Operation in the United States These speeches are fifteen minutes in length, the rebuttals six minutes, and are printed as they were given against the Nebraska Wesleyan and Washburn Universities, two of the strongest debating schools in the Middle West. A. R. Bradley, First Affirmative. Honorable Judges, Ladies and Gentlemen: Nations perish when their foundations crumble. Hence a question of vital concern to our laboring class must necessarily vitally concern our nation; for the great laboring class constitutes the basis of society. The wide spread interest which this question is arousing and the action which has been started in several states forces it upon the minds of the thinking public with a burning appeal. Following the example of Massachusetts nine states have enrolled on their statute books a minimum wage law. Hence, we are face to face with living progressive truths, no longer theories. Industrial disputes are about the only form of contention in which the government does not arbitrarily compel adjustment, but even these are coming more and more under the jurisdiction of the state until at present two-thirds of our states have some form of law concerning labor and its interests. Why this increasing interest? There is a vast hord of laborers in the United States who are forced by starvation wages to exist among such sordid surroundings that they are wrecked in character and in physique, the greatest assets of a nation. In spite of the fact that through the long weary hours of toil they have produced wealth and...
