The Riddle: and the Greatly Exaggerated Reports of the Philosophers Death

By Manuel Marquez

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 122 pages. Dimensions: 7.8in. x 5.1in. x 0.3in. I first heard of the Riddle in a leadership workshop. They say the most difficult, yet essential, skill for a leader is self-awareness. Our facilitators intention was to make that point in an impactful way. He ignored the audience and addressed just one of us in the first row. Who are you, he inquired raising his voice with more solemnity than we were expecting. Im Peter, the companys Chief Marketing Officer, Peter responded proudly. I asked who you are, not what you do!, our facilitator grumbled as he turned to the next participant: Who are you Im a mother of two children, Elaine tried to no avail, as her sentence was cut in the middle. I didnt ask you about your family!, he roared. Cant anyone please tell me who you are We were all now finally getting his point. As the old Zen koan illustrates, the self is of volatile essence: where do you find yourself between two of your adjacent thoughts This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
