Oh, we have just begun to live in this world! We are yet in our Skins Of humanness a lot Of misfit links thick-headed, evil-tempered, Selfish apes who think we know it all and that we are great and wise and are living as God intended we should! But only if we could look ahead and see what the true race is going to be a million years hence! To them we will have been less than cave-men, cliff-dwellers. For they will have gone to heights indeed, over hills Of progress. And do you know what I believe will be the dominant characteristic, the ruling spirit of the perfect man? The recognition of life and immortality wherever he sees it, whether in tree, grass, bird, animal, or man. All things will be alive to him and he will respect every little life which lives, and knowing that he himself is immortal and that they also are, even unto the gift Of the life given them, he will respect the rights Of life in those things which we men-apes now wantonly and ignorantly slay. And he will love all things which the Great first Cause, whom we call God, has made. He will lie down with the grass, and kiss the ?owers as children, and be unto the trees an elder brother. And as for taking human life, the thought will have been bred out Of him eons ago! I would not live in a country where the blue grass...
