Excerpt: . . . compilation of average prices, new elements and sciences, and a multitude of inventions and discoveries for the advancement of man in his onward path of progress, and in the knowledge of the ways of an inscrutable providence. Now instead of pondering over farmers deliveries, weekly receipts, visible supplies, and entering into an expensive collection and elaborate examination of statistics of what the probable production of pig-iron, corn, and tiOgs will be, and the commercial demand for the same, and what old elements will be wanting and new ones to be developed, and watching and waiting to hear from New York, let us call history to the witness stand, and see what it has to testify on the subject; and also bring into court the testimony of observation and experience, by taking the course of the averages in past markets, as compiled by reliable and official authority; and also the years in which money has been made and lost in the different branches of trade, and then bj our rule make the application for the future PIG-IRON. The following statement, prepared by Hot Henry C. Carey, in 1849, embraces all that is definitely known of the progress of. the iron industry in this country prior to 1854. Mr. Careys Pig-iron Statistics. In 1810 the whole number of furnaces in the Union was 153, yielding 54, 000 tons of metal, equal to 16 pounds per head of the population. In 1821 the manufacture was in a...
