Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.ABOUT THE AUTHOR Dr Philip Stack is a Pennsylvanian by birth and son of refugee parents. He is currently a resident of Spring Hill, Tennessee. As a Clinical Psychologist he considers the happy, intact family a crucial part of a healthy society. He and his wife are parents of one girl and five boys. They have twenty grand children and are married 57 years. Dr Stack has practiced in several mental health facilities over a period of 35 years. About his book How To Do Family Therapy Hans Selye writes: Let me congratulate you upon having written a fine and enlightening work. Dr Stack identifies The Love Force as a primary agent in healing the malfunctioning family group. The Love Force exists everywhere in nature and its healing power may be transmitted mainly from one person to another. Dr Stack identifies the improvement in family relationships as change through no change. Psychological needs are identified and accommodated. Offering acceptance, reassurance and understanding is an effective and necessary requirement. In his philosophy, Dr Stack offers a simple guideline: Give the therapeutic power of your compliments generously to the world that the Love Force may enter people's lives and allow peace and happiness to flourish. Dr Stack is author of How To Be Good, Hail to the Second Best, Secrets of a Romantic Man, and How we raised our children to serve the Lord. ---- How much good is required for peace to exist? And how many persons are needed who will give more and sacrifice more and receive less to sustain peace? How much good in giving is required when giving is offered to accommodate many needs?...
